

TIMES OF INDIA

STUDENT EDITION

Thursday, November 10, 2016

IMPECCABLE RECORD

Dhoni should continue as ODI captain because we have seen his achievements in the past and his record in helping the team is truly impeccable. In fact, he should remain the captain until the day he retires. It is wrong to say that he has lost his Midas touch. He is one of the greatest names in cricket and has the potential to play for many years.

SOURISH SRINIVASAN, class VIII, The Oxford Senior Secondary School, Bengaluru

TIMES OF INDIA

STUDENT EDITION

Tuesday, November 22, 2016

THE OXFORD SENIOR SECONDARY SCHOOL

The school celebrated Children's Day with splashing fun, cheers and a jolly time. The programme started with seeking the blessings of the Lord with a blend of cosmic tune and divine music. Teachers welcomed the children with group songs, inspirational thoughts, funny news, yoga with different postures. Young dancers held everyone's attention with some stunning foot-steps. The band master presented a wonderful musical item. The management, principal and staff wished the children a wonderful day.

TIMES OF INDIA

STUDENT EDITION

Friday, December 16, 2016

New hope on table tennis horizon

Karnataka's Talented Cadet Boys And Girls Teams Aim Higher In New Year

Shrutha Sridhar
@timesgroup.com

Bengaluru: Karnataka's cadet boys and girls teams set their sights on improved performances in the new year following impressive displays in the 7th Cadet and Sub-Junior Inter-State and National Table Tennis Championships held at Siliguri, West Bengal earlier this month.

The boys team claimed a silver medal in the team championship while the girls won the bronze. In the individual event, rising talent Sujan R Bhardwaj captured a silver to cap a successful run in the December 1-6 event.

"The boys performed well against strong rivals in Tamil Nadu. We were unfortunate to go down in the final but the team showed good potential to do well in future," the team's coach

BRIGHT PROSPECTS

ONES TO WATCH: The Karnataka cadet boys and girls teams, winners of a silver and bronze respectively in the 7th Cadet and Sub-Junior Inter-State and National Table Tennis Championships in Siliguri, West Bengal. (From left) Sujan R Bhardwaj, Muzhi Vishu Bhat, Aakash KJ, Karuna G, Sujan R Bhardwaj and Srikant Kashyap PV. The girls team also included Saathika S Rao and Ishani Harish (below, right with coach Veeresh Matpathi)

TIMES OF INDIA

STUDENT EDITION

Thursday, November 24, 2016

Diabetic awareness programme organised

Adiabetic awareness programme was organised at The Oxford Senior Secondary School by Novo Nordisk on November 11. The programme highlighted the importance of eating healthy food and exercising daily as a part of life.

Senior public affairs manager P Dinakaran and senior medical advisor Dr Raj Kumar shared information and explained about Diabetes and how we can prevent it. All the students participated in a Walkathon and enjoyed it. Drawing and painting competitions for students, to spread awareness on Diabetes were conducted. Sanjana Garcia, Ashwini Naik and Sanjana Shenoy bagged first, second and third position in the competition. They received a certificate and trophy

TIMES OF INDIA

STUDENT EDITION

Friday, November 11, 2016

SCHOOL BUZZ

The Oxford Sr Secondary Sch, JP Ngr

The 61st Kannada Rajyatosava programme began with the traditional lighting of the lamp and invocation to seek the blessings of the almighty. Students presented a state song that captured the spirit of the day. A skit was performed on the moral "Never assign important tasks to wrong people." Musical instruments were played by children to showcase their talent. Students and teachers spoke on the occasion. The management, principal Mariamma Mathew and the staff wished everyone.

TIMES OF INDIA

STUDENT EDITION

Tuesday, January 03, 2017

SCHOOL BUZZ

The Oxford Sr Sec School, J P Nagar

Akash M of class XI participated South Zone Skating Championship 2016-17 at the CBSE inter-school sports and games competition organised by Edify School, in Tiruthi on December 19. He participated in under-19 category in Rink Race IV and Rink Race V and bagged first position in both the events. He received two Gold medals and a certificate. The management, principal Mariamma Mathew and the staff congratulate him on his achievement.